Burn and Wound Care at Miami Valley

Call
Libby Donathan
Physician Relations Manager
(937) 208-2767
lkdonathan@mvh.org

Clinical Hours of Operation
Monday – Friday
8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Regional Adult Burn Center
Miami Valley Hospital
One Wyoming St.
Dayton, Ohio 45409
(937) 208-BURN (2876)

For emergency transfers, please contact the Access and Transfer Center at 1-866-330-3444.

mvh.org/burn

Miami Valley Hospital
Premier Health Partners

The Region's Leader

Burn and Wound Care at Miami Valley Hospital

With 32 years of experience behind it, the Miami Valley Hospital (MVH) Regional Adult Burn Center is the most recognized facility in West Central Ohio for the treatment of adult and adolescent burn patients. The MVH Burn Center handles burns of every severity level.

Burn Unit

- Dedicated 10-bed unit
- Specialized ventilation system
- Treatment rooms built to operation-room specifications
- Full support of Level I Trauma Center
- Management of all burns and complex skin and wound conditions requiring a comprehensive team approach, such as TENS (Toxic Epidermal Necrolysis Syndrome) and similar syndromes

Treatment Includes

- Early assessment and individualized treatment plan for best overall outcome
- Burn scar assessment, reconstruction and management for optimal functionality and cosmesis
- Consult with a dietitian, social worker, physical/occupational therapist
- Consult with a burn care physician
- Education on burn care and prevention
- Acute/chronic burn types:
  - Flame
  - Scald
  - Chemical
  - Electrical
  - Friction (Road Rash)
  - Radiation/Ultraviolet
  - Hypothermic
  - Inhalation

Team of Specialists

- Physicians
- Nurses
- Occupational and Physical Therapists
- Dietitians
- Pharmacists
- Social Worker
- Psychologists and Pastoral Counselors

Wound Care

The Outpatient and Inpatient Burn Center treats patients with large, complex skin disorders and non-healing wounds that require a comprehensive team approach, that includes:

- Arterial Insufficiency Ulcers
- Compromised Skin Grafts and Flaps
- Diabetic Wounds
- Osteomyelitis
- Venous Stasis Ulcers
- Necrotizing Soft Tissue Infections (such as Necrotizing Fasciitis and Fournier's Gangrenes)
- Refractive Hidradenitis
- Pressure Ulcers
- Radiation Tissue Damage
- Surgical Wounds
- Hypothermia Frostbite
- Cutaneous and Soft Tissue Trauma

Treatment Includes

- Wound Care and Dressing Changes
- Medications
- Cell Therapy
- Laser Doppler Blood Flow Evaluation
- Diabetic Foot Clinic
- Negative Pressure Wound Therapy
- Surgical Debridement if necessary
- Specialized Reconstructive Wound Closure/Coverage